

ask you, even though I think it is the wrong thing to do, because I think the concept is correct, I am going to have to ask you to vote against the committee amendments because we simply can't enact the committee amendments without the notice of hearing procedures that we had in the amendment that I offered to the committee amendments. Now, just so you understand, I have got a kill motion up there following this because I am not willing to accept LB 459 in its original form which says that we are going to just take all of the authority to enforce the law away from the state. Thank you, Madam President.

SENATOR SCOFIELD: Senator Nichol, on the committee amendments. Senator Nichol, did you want to talk on the committee amendments? The Chair recognizes Senator Morehead on the committee amendments. We will pass over Senator Morehead and move to Senator DeCamp.

SENATOR DECAMP: I move we adjourn. I want to go home.

SENATOR SCOFIELD: Can we have the Clerk read in a couple things before we adjourn?

SENATOR DECAMP: Whatever you want.

SENATOR SCOFIELD: Go ahead, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: Madam President, I would remind the members of the Banking Committee that they have a meeting in 2102 upon adjournment. John wants to go home.

Mr. President, new bills. (Read LB 1057-1062 by titles for the first time. See pages 359-60 of the Legislative Journal.)

Madam President, Senator Morehead would like to add her name as co-sponsor of LB 1018. That is all that I have.

SENATOR SCOFIELD: Thank you, Mr. Clerk. Senator Nichol.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Madam President, tomorrow you know that we are on consent calendar and we will break for the noon luncheon and come back at one-thirty, as we usually do. Several have been of the opinion that we would go until one or so and quit, but that is not true. We will break for the noon hour as usual and continue after lunch as long as you
